NORTHERN TRUST

NORTHERN TRUST INSTITUTIONAL INVESTOR CONFERENCE

Strategies for an Evolving Market

WITH KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

LORD DAVID CAMERON, ALASTAIR CAMPBELL AND SIR CHRIS HOY

Conference Agenda

30 September 2005 • The Pelligon, 43 Bank Street, Canary Wharf, London

08:45-09:30 Registration and light breakfast

09:30-09:45 Welcome and introduction

Mike O' Grady, Chairman and CEO, Northern Trust
Clive Bellows, President for EMEA, Northern Trust

09:45-10:30 Panel discussion: The Power of Partnerships

With Mike O'Grady, Chairman and CEO, Northern Trust
The financial services industry is intrinsically interconnected, with institutions working together across banking, markets, and multiple parts of the financial ecosystem. Listen to a unique executive fireside chat, as key industry participants discuss the importance of collaboration to drive efficiency, innovation and client value across financial markets.

10:30-11:15 Panel discussion: Managing the Explosive Growth in Alternatives

20 years ago, alternative investments represented $4.8 trillion, or 6%, of global assets under management, with hedge funds making up the vast majority. Today, alternative investments are larger and more diverse than ever, sitting at $22 trillion of assets under management, or 15% of global assets under management. Will this trend continue and where will the next wave of capital come from?

11:15-11:45 Coffee break

11:45-12:30 From Policy Shifts to Trade Wars – The Political Forces Reshaping the Global Markets

Alastair Campbell, Broadcaster and Spokesperson for Former UK Prime Minister, Tony Blair
In an era of rapid geopolitical change, economic policies and international trade are increasingly shaped by political decisions rather than purely market forces. This keynote speech will explore the profound impact of policy shifts, regulatory changes, and trade wars on the global economy.

12:30-13:15 Lunch

13:15-14:00 Panel discussion: What is the Future of Sustainable Investing in a Divided World?

The future of sustainable investing is up for debate. While some regions are limiting or scaling back their use of sustainability and ESG frameworks, others are charging ahead with ambitious plans. And despite this contradiction, the global value of sustainable and ESG assets is predicted to hit somewhere between $35 and $50 trillion by 2030. What are the threats and opportunities that will shape this new era for sustainable investing?

14:00-14:45 Maximising Performance – The Intersection of Sport and Business

Sir Chris Hoy, MBE, Multiple World and Olympic Champion Track Cyclist
What lessons can the world of sport teach us about identifying opportunities, mitigating risks and performing under pressure to improve business performance?

14:45-15:45 Fireside discussion: Lessons in Leadership

With Lord David Cameron, UK Prime Minister (2010-2016)

15:45-16:00 Closing remarks

Clive Bellows, President for EMEA, Northern Trust

16:00-18:00 Drinks and canapés

CLICK TO VIEW KEYNOTE SPEAKERS →

NORTHERN TRUST

NORTHERN TRUST INSTITUTIONAL INVESTOR CONFERENCE

Keynote Speakers

Lord David Cameron

Lord David Cameron was Prime Minister of the United Kingdom from 2010 - 2016 and Secretary of State for Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Affairs from 2023-2024. Responding to unprecedented global upheaval and crisis, the former Prime Minister was called back to serve as Foreign Secretary, given his experience and key global relationships. His insights will resonate with business leaders, providing actionable strategies and inspiring confidence in the face of uncertainty.

Alastair Campbell

Alistair Campbell is a writer, broadcaster and strategist best known for his role as former UK Prime Minister Tony Blair's spokesperson, press secretary and director of communications and strategy. Still active in politics and campaigns in Britain and overseas, he now splits his time between writing, speaking, broadcasting, charities and consultancy.

Sir Chris Hoy, MBE

Sir Chris Hoy is a legend of the sporting world and one of Great Britain's most successful Olympic athletes with six gold medals and one silver. Following his historic hat-trick of gold medals at the Beijing Olympics, Chris was voted 2008 BBC Sports Personality of the Year and he was also awarded a Knighthood in the 2009 New Year Honours list. Chris is a main stay amongst sporting commentary and punditry in the UK having been an integral part of the BBC's team covering the Olympics and the Tour de France. In 2024 Chris announced that he was living with stage 4 cancer. Maintaining the determination, resilience and positivity that shaped his sporting success, Chris inspired the nation once again with his memoir All That Matters, sharing how he has used these experiences to find ways to focus on the moments that matter.

Hosted by Northern Trust's

Mike O'Grady
Chairman and CEO, Northern Trust

VIEW BIOGRAPHY

Clive Bellows
President for EMEA, Northern Trust

VIEW BIOGRAPHY

← CLICK TO VIEW CONFERENCE AGENDA