PROSPECTUS AND SUMMARY PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT

NORTHERN INSTITUTIONAL FUNDS MONEY MARKET PORTFOLIOS – SHARES, SERVICE SHARES AND PREMIER SHARES

SUPPLEMENT DATED JULY 21, 2017 TO THE PROSPECTUS AND SUMMARY PROSPECTUS FOR THE GOVERNMENT ASSETS PORTFOLIO EACH DATED APRIL 1, 2017

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING AN UPCOMING REORGANIZATION OF THE GOVERNMENT ASSETS PORTFOLIO

The Board of Trustees (the “Board”) of Northern Institutional Funds (the “Trust”) has approved a Plan of Reorganization, which contemplates the reorganization of the Government Assets Portfolio, a series of the Trust (the “Acquired Portfolio”), with and into the U.S. Government Portfolio, also a series of the Trust (the “Acquiring Portfolio” and, together with the Acquired Portfolio, the “Portfolios”). The reorganization is expected to take effect on or about November 17, 2017 or such other date the Board or an authorized officer of the Trust may determine. The reorganization does not require a shareholder vote by the Acquired Portfolio’s shareholders, but the reorganization is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions. More information about the Acquiring Portfolio and the definitive terms of the reorganization will be included in an information statement that will be mailed to shareholders at a later date.

After the close of business on November 10, 2017, the Acquired Portfolio will discontinue accepting orders from new investors for purchase of the Acquired Portfolio shares or exchanges into the Acquired Portfolio from other portfolios of the Trust; provided, however, that existing shareholders of the Acquired Portfolio may continue to purchase, redeem and exchange shares subject to the account policies described in the Acquired Portfolio’s prospectus up until the date of the reorganization. For shareholders who purchase shares of the Acquired Portfolio through a Northern Trust sweep account, the Portfolio will remain available until on or about November 17, 2017.

After considering the recommendation of Northern Trust Investments, Inc. (“NTI”), the Portfolios’ investment adviser, the Board concluded that the reorganization would be in the best interests of each Portfolio and their shareholders and shareholders’ interests will not be diluted as a result of the reorganization. It is expected that the reorganization of the Portfolios will be effected on a tax-free basis for federal income tax purposes. This tax-free treatment, however, does not extend to transactions that occur prior to, or after the reorganization.

The Acquired Portfolio may make distributions to shareholders of certain ordinary income and/or capital gains on or before the reorganization. In that event, the distributions may be taxable to shareholders who receive the distribution (aside from tax-exempt accounts). SHAREHOLDERS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR PERSONAL TAX PROFESSIONALS CONCERNING ALL TAX CONSEQUENCES APPLICABLE TO THEIR INVESTMENT IN THE ACQUIRED PORTFOLIO AND THE TAX IMPACT OF THE REORGANIZATION OF THE ACQUIRED PORTFOLIO.

If a shareholder redeems shares of the Acquired Portfolio within two days of the effective date of the reorganization, the payment of proceeds may be delayed for up to seven days.

EXAMPLE

The following Example is intended to help you compare the cost of investing in Shares of the Portfolio with the cost of investing in other mutual funds. The Example assumes that you invest $10,000 in the Portfolio for the time periods indicated and then redeem all of your shares at the end of those periods. The Example also assumes that your investment has a 5% return each year and that the Portfolio's operating expenses remain the same. Although your actual costs may be higher or lower, based on these assumptions your costs would be:

	1 Year	3 Years	5 Years	10 Years
Shares	$26	$83	$145	$330

PRINCIPAL INVESTMENT STRATEGIES

The Portfolio seeks to achieve its objective by investing, under normal circumstances, substantially all (and at least 99.5%) of its total assets in cash, securities issued or guaranteed as to principal and interest by the U.S. government or by a person controlled or supervised by and acting as an instrumentality of the U.S. government pursuant to authority granted by the Congress of the United States or any certificate of deposit of any of the foregoing, and repurchase agreements that are fully collateralized by cash or such securities. The Portfolio, under normal circumstances, will invest at least 80% of its net assets (plus the amount of any borrowings for investment purposes) in U.S. government securities and repurchase agreements collateralized solely by U.S. government securities.

The Portfolio operates as a "government money market fund" under Rule 2a-7 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. As a "government money market fund" under Rule 2a-7, the Portfolio (1) is permitted to use the amortized cost method of valuation to seek to maintain a stable net asset value ("NAV") of $1.00 share price, and (2) is not required to impose a liquidity fee and/or a redemption gate on fund redemptions that might apply to other types of money market funds should certain triggering events specified in Rule 2a-7 occur.

The Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") imposes strict requirements on the investment quality, maturity, diversification and liquidity of the Portfolio's investments. Accordingly, the Portfolio's investments must have a remaining maturity of no more than 397 days and must be high quality. The Portfolio's investment adviser may consider, among other things, credit, interest rate and prepayment risks as well as general market conditions when deciding whether to buy or sell investments for the Portfolio.

PRINCIPAL RISKS

STABLE NAV RISK is the risk that the Portfolio will not be able to maintain a NAV per share of $1.00 at all times. A significant enough market disruption or drop in market prices of securities held by the Portfolio, especially at a time when the Portfolio needs to sell securities to meet shareholder redemption requests, could cause the value of the Portfolio's shares to decrease to a price less than $1.00 per share.

INTEREST RATE RISK is the risk that during periods of rising interest rates, the Portfolio's yield (and the market value of its securities) will tend to be lower than prevailing market rates; in periods of falling interest rates, the Portfolio's yield (and the market value of its securities) will tend to be higher. If interest rates rise, the Portfolio's yield may not increase proportionately. The risks associated with increasing interest rates are heightened given that interest rates are near historic lows, but are expected to increase in the future with unpredictable effects on the markets and the Portfolio's investments. A low interest rate environment may prevent the Portfolio from providing a positive yield or paying Portfolio expenses out of Portfolio assets and could lead to a decline in the Portfolio's share price.

GUARANTOR (OR CREDIT ENHANCEMENT) RISK is the risk that changes in credit quality of a U.S. or foreign bank, insurance company or other financial institution or such entity's failure to fulfill its obligations could cause the Portfolio's investments to decline in value. Adverse developments in the banking or bond insurance industries also may negatively affect the Portfolio.

PREPAYMENT (OR CALL) RISK is the risk that prepayment of the underlying mortgages or other collateral of some fixed-income securities may result in a decreased rate of return and a decline in value of those securities.

DEBT EXTENSION RISK is the risk that an issuer will exercise its right to pay principal on an obligation held by the Portfolio (such as an asset-backed security) later than expected. This may happen during a period of rising interest rates. Under these circumstances, the value of the obligation will decrease and the Portfolio will suffer from the inability to invest in higher yielding securities.

INCOME RISK is the risk that falling interest rates will cause the Portfolio's income to decline. Income risk is generally higher for short-term debt securities.

MANAGEMENT RISK is the risk that a strategy used by the Portfolio's investment adviser may fail to produce the intended results or that imperfections, errors or limitations in the tools and data used by the investment adviser may cause unintended results.

U.S. GOVERNMENT SECURITIES RISK is the risk that the U.S. government will not provide financial support to its agencies, instrumentalities or sponsored enterprises if it is not obligated to do so by law. Certain U.S. government securities purchased by the Portfolio may not be backed by the full faith and credit of the United States. It is possible that the issuers of such securities will not have the funds to meet their payment obligations in the future.

LARGE SHAREHOLDER TRANSACTIONS RISK is the risk that the Portfolio may experience adverse effects when certain large shareholders purchase or redeem large amounts of shares of the Portfolio. Such large shareholder redemptions may cause the Portfolio to sell its securities at times it would not otherwise do so, which may negatively impact its liquidity. In addition, large redemptions could lead to an increase in the Portfolio's expense ratio due to a smaller asset base. Large Portfolio share purchases may adversely affect the Portfolio's performance to the extent that the Portfolio is delayed in investing new cash and is required to maintain a larger cash position than it ordinarily would.

CYBERSECURITY RISK is the risk of an unauthorized breach and access to fund assets, customer data (including private shareholder information), or proprietary information, or the risk of an incident occurring that causes the Portfolio, the investment adviser, custodian, transfer agent, distributor and other service providers and financial intermediaries to suffer data breaches, data corruption or lose operational functionality. Successful cyber-attacks or other cyber-failures or events affecting the Portfolio or its service providers may adversely impact the Portfolio or its shareholders.

MARKET RISK is the risk that general market conditions, such as real or perceived adverse economic or political conditions, inflation, changes in interest rates, lack of liquidity in the bond markets or adverse investor sentiment could cause the value of your investment in the Portfolio, or its yield, to decline.

MARKET EVENTS RISK relates to the increased volatility, depressed valuations, decreased liquidity and heightened uncertainty in the financial markets during the past several years. These conditions may continue, recur, worsen or spread. The U.S. government and the Federal Reserve, as well as certain foreign governments and central banks, have taken steps to support financial markets, including by keeping interest rates at historically low levels. This and other government intervention may not work as intended, particularly if the efforts are perceived by investors as being unlikely to achieve the desired results. The U.S. government and the Federal Reserve have recently reduced market support activities. Further reduction, including interest rate increases, could negatively affect financial markets generally, increase market volatility and reduce the value and liquidity of securities in which the Portfolio invests. Policy and legislative changes in the United States and in other countries may also continue to contribute to decreased liquidity and increased volatility in the financial markets. The impact of these changes on the markets, and the practical implications for market participants, may not be fully known for some time.

You could lose money by investing in the Portfolio. Although the Portfolio seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, the Portfolio cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in the Portfolio is not a deposit of any bank and is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, any other government agency, or The Northern Trust Company, its affiliates, subsidiaries or any other bank. The Portfolio's sponsor has no legal obligation to provide financial support to the Portfolio, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the Portfolio at any time.
